“Men Sing”

September 23, 2018 (Sun)

All Men are invited to meet in the music room at 9:30 am to practice a hymn to offer in worship. It's loads of fun, a great way to make a new friend, and it makes you part of the most popular singing group in the church (that day).

The flowers in the chancel area today are given to the glory of God by Sharon Rock in memory of her father Nelson Fortune.

Adult Sunday School

“The Story Class” led by Bob Prestridge commenced today at 9 AM. This class meets in room 207. The class consists of a DVD and discussion afterwards; no weekly reading is required.

There is an Upper Story; God is real and he is present and a Lower Story; we live on earth, we make mistakes, we run from God and resist his overture of love. We will be studying both these stories in the Bible and how the two are intertwined.

The “Kitchen Forum” adult Sunday School class resumed today 9 AM in Room 209, just off the Fellowship Hall. Our Fearless leader, Rev. Dr. Bill Austin, plans to teach the Letter of James, “Because what he writes relates so well to our lives.” The Kitchen Forum is a discussion group that is prayerfully working its way through different books of the Bible with a firm hand at the tiller.
